

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF HEALTH INFORMATION

Community Hospice of Tuscarawas, Stark and Carroll County (hereinafter referred to as "Hospice") may use your health information, information that constitutes protected health information as defined in the Privacy Rule of the Administrative Simplification provisions of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, for purposes of providing you treatment, obtaining payment for your care and conducting health care operations. Hospice has established policies to guard against unnecessary disclosure of your health information.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED:

To Provide Treatment: Hospice may use your health information to coordinate care within the Hospice and with others involved in your care, such as your attending physician, members of the Hospice interdisciplinary team and other health care professionals who have agreed to assist the Hospice in coordinating care. For example, physicians involved in your care will need information about your symptoms in order to prescribe appropriate medications. Hospice also may disclose your health care information to individuals outside of Hospice involved in your care including family members and clergy who you have designated, pharmacists, suppliers of medical equipment or other health care professionals.

To Obtain Payment: Hospice may include your health information in invoices to collect payment from third parties for the care you receive from the Hospice. For example, Hospice may be required by your health insurer to provide information regarding your healthcare status so that the insurer will reimburse you or Hospice. Hospice also may need to obtain prior approval from your insurer and may need to explain to the insurer your need for hospice care and the services that will be provided to you. You may restrict disclosure for this purpose if you have made payment out-of-pocket in full. In this case, contact the Finance Department at (330) 343-7605.

To Conduct Health Care Operations: Hospice may use and disclose health information for its own operations in order to facilitate the function of the Hospice and as necessary to provide quality care to all of the Hospice's patients. Health care operations include such activities as:

- Quality assessment and improvement activities.
- Professional review and performance evaluation.
- Activities designed to improve health or reduce health care costs.
- Protocol development, case management and care coordination.
- Contracting health care providers and patients with information about treatment alternatives and other related functions that do not include treatment.
- Training programs including those in which students, trainees or practitioners in health care learn under supervision.
- Training of non-health care professionals.
- Accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.
- Review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical reviews, legal services and compliance programs.
- Business planning and development including cost management and planning related analyses and formulary development.
- Business management and general administrative activities of Hospice.
- Fundraising for the benefit of Hospice.

For Fund Raising Activities: Hospice may use information about you including your name, address, phone number and the dates you received care in order to contact you or your family to raise money for the Hospice. Hospice may also release this information to a related Hospice foundation. If you do not want Hospice to contact you or your family, notify the Director of Human Resources, at (330)-343-7605 and indicate that you do not wish to be contacted.

For Appointment Reminders: Hospice may use and disclose your health information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for a home visit.

For Treatment Alternatives: Hospice may use and disclose your health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment operations or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Other than stated above, Hospice will not disclose your health information other than with your authorization. If you or your representative authorizes Hospice to use or disclose your health information, you may revoke that authorization in writing at any time.

YOUR RIGHTS WITH RESPECT TO YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

You have the following rights regarding your health information that Hospice maintains:

- Right to request restriction: You may request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information. You have the right to request a limit on Hospice's disclosure of your health information to someone who is involved in your care or the payment of your care. However, the Hospice is not required to agree to your request. If you wish to make a request for restrictions, please contact the Director of Human Resources, at (330) 343-7605.
- Right to receive confidential communications: You have the right to request that Hospice communicate with you in a certain way. For example, you may ask that Hospice only conduct communications pertaining to your health information with you privately with no other family members present. If you wish to receive confidential communications, please contact the Director of Human Resources at (330) 343-7605. Hospice will not request that you provide any reasons for your request and will attempt to honor your reasonable requests for confidential communications.
- Right to inspect and copy your health information: You have the right to inspect and copy your health information, including billing records. A request to inspect and copy records containing your health information may be made to the Director of Human Resources at (330) 343-7605. If you request a copy of your health information, Hospice may charge a reasonable fee for copying, assembling and other tasks associated with your request.
- Right to amend health care information: You or your representative have the right to request that Hospice amend your records if you believe that your health information is incorrect or incomplete. That request may be made as long as the information is maintained by Hospice. A request for an amendment of records must be made in writing to the Director of Human Resources at 716 Commercial Avenue SW, New Philadelphia, OH 44663. Hospice may deny the request if it is not in writing or does not include a reason for the amendment. The request also may be denied if your health information records were not created by Hospice, if the records you are requesting are not part of Hospice's records, if the health information you wish to amend is not part of the health information you or your representative are permitted to inspect and copy, or if, in the opinion of Hospice, the records containing your health information are accurate and complete.
- Right to an accounting: You or your representative have the right to request an accounting of disclosures of your health information made by Hospice for certain reasons, including reasons related to public purposes authorized by law and certain research. The request for an accounting must be made in writing to the Director of Human Resources at 716 Commercial Avenue SW, New Philadelphia, Ohio 44663. The request should specify the time period for the accounting starting on or after April 14, 2003. Accounting requests may not be made for periods of time in excess of six (6) years. Hospice would provide the first accounting request during any 12-month period without charge. Subsequent accounting requests may be subject to a reasonable cost-based fee.
- Breach of Notification Requirement: You have the right to be notified if your unsecured Protected Health Information is breached.
- Right to a paper copy of this notice: You or your representative have a right to a separate paper copy of this Notice at any time if you or your representative has received this Notice previously. To obtain a separate copy, please contact the Director of Human Resources at (330) 343-7605. The patient's representative may also obtain a copy of the current version of the Hospice's Notice of Privacy at its website, www.myhospice.org.

DUTIES OF THE HOSPICE

Hospice is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide to you and your representative this Notice of its duties and privacy practices. Hospice is required to abide by the terms of this Notice as may be amended from time to time. Hospice reserves the right to change the terms of its Notice and to make the new Notice provisions effective for all health information that it maintains. If the Hospice changes its Notice, the Hospice will provide a copy of the revised Notice to you or your appointed representative. You, or your personal representative have the right to express complaints to Hospice and to the Secretary of DHHS if you or your representative believe that your privacy rights have been violated. Any complaints to Hospice should be made in writing to the Director of Human Resources at 716 Commercial Avenue SW, New Philadelphia, Ohio 44663. Hospice encourages you to express any concerns you may have regarding the privacy of your information. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint.

CONTACT PERSON

Hospice has designated the Director of Human Resources as its contact person for all issues regarding patient privacy and your rights under the Federal privacy standards. You may contact this person at 716 Commercial Avenue SW, New Philadelphia, Ohio 44663.

EFFECTIVE DATE

This Notice is effective August 1, 2013.

If you have any questions regarding this Notice, please contact the Director of Human Resources at 716 Commercial Avenue SW, New Philadelphia, Ohio 44663, Telephone (330) 343-7605.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCE UNDER WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAY ALSO BE USED AND DISCLOSED:

When Legally Required: Hospice will disclose your health information when it is required to do so by any federal, State or local law.

When There are Risks to Public Health: Hospice may disclose your health information for public activities and purposes in order to:

- Prevent or control disease, injury or disability, report disease, injury, vital events such as birth or death and the conduct of public health surveillance, investigations and interventions.
- Report adverse events, product defects, to track products or enable product recalls, repairs and replacements and to conduct post-marketing surveillance and compliance with requirements of the Food and Drug Administration.
- Notify a person who has been exposed to a communicable disease or who may be at risk of contacting or spreading a disease.

To Report Neglect or Domestic Violence: Hospice is allowed to notify government authorities if Hospice believes a patient is the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. Hospice will make this disclosure only when specifically required or authorized by law or when the patient agrees to the disclosure.

To conduct Health Oversight Activities: Hospice may disclose your health information to a health oversight hospice for activities including audits, civil administrative or criminal investigations, inspections, licensure or disciplinary action. Hospice, however, may not disclose your health information if you are the subject of an investigation and your health information is not directly related to your receipt of health care or public benefits.

In Connection with Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: Hospice may disclose your health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal as expressly authorized by such order.

For Law Enforcement Purposes: As permitted or required by State law, Hospice may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for certain law enforcement purposes as follows:

- As required by law for reporting of certain types of wounds or other physical injuries pursuant to the court order, warrant, subpoena or summons or similar process.
- For the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- Under certain limited circumstances, when you are the victim of a crime.
- To a law enforcement official if Hospice has a suspicion that your death was the result of criminal conduct including criminal conduct at Hospice.
- In an emergency in order to report a crime.

To Funeral Directors: Hospice may disclose your health information to funeral directors consistent with applicable law and if necessary, to carry out their duties with respect to your funeral arrangements. If necessary to carry out their duties, Hospice may disclose your health information prior to and in reasonable anticipation of your death.

For Organ, Eye or Tissue Donation: Hospice may use or disclose your health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking or transplantation of organs, eyes or tissues for the purpose of facilitating the donation and transportation.

For Research Purposes: Hospice may, under very select circumstances, use your health information for research. Before Hospice discloses any of your health information for such research purposes, the project will be subject to an extensive approval process.

In the Event of a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: Hospice may, consistent with applicable law and ethical standards of conduct disclose your health information if Hospice, in good faith, believes that such disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health and safety of the public.

For Specified Government Functions: In certain circumstances, the Federal regulations authorize the Hospice to use or disclose your health information to facilitate specified government functions relating to military and veterans, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations and inmates and law enforcement custody.

For Workers' Compensation: Hospice may release your health information for Workers' Compensation or similar programs.
